

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
CHARLESTON DIVISION

Azeez Sayfa Al-Din Bey,

Plaintiff,

v.

One80 Place; Hope Center; and Neighborhood House Community
Outreach,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:23-6035-RMG

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the on a Report and Recommendation (“R & R”) of the Magistrate Judge recommending summary dismissal of the Plaintiff’s complaint without further leave to amend because the complaint fails to state a federal claim upon which relief may be granted. (Dkt. No. 13). Plaintiff was advised that he had 14 days to file written objections to the R & R, and a failure to file any objections would result in limited clear error review by the District Court and waiver of the right to appeal from the judgment of the District Court. (Id. at 10). Plaintiff filed no timely objections to the R & R.

By way of background, Plaintiff, proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, asserted claims against Defendants for alleged denial of housing and employment due to not possessing a Social Security card his national origin. He asserts claims under the Zodiac Constitution, the United Nations Declaration of Rights of Indigenous People, the Privacy Act and 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff’s claims are often associated with the sovereign citizen movement.

Legal Standard

The Magistrate Judge makes only a recommendation to this Court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and the responsibility for making a final determination remains with this Court. Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270-71 (1976). The Court is charged with making a de novo determination only of those portions of the Report to which specific objections are made, and the Court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, or recommit the matter to the Magistrate Judge with instructions. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). In the absence of specific objections, the Court reviews the matter only for clear error. See Diamond v. Colonial Life & Accident Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005) (stating that “in the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must ‘only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.’”) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 72 advisory committee's note).

Discussion

The Magistrate Judge ably addressed each of Plaintiff’s various claims and concluded that each claim against Defendant was wholly without legal merit. (Dkt. No. 13 at 4-8). The Magistrate Judge recommended that the Plaintiff’s complaint be summarily dismissed without further leave to amend. The Court finds that Plaintiff’s complaint lacks any legal merit and adopts the R & R (Dkt. No. 13) as the order of the Court. Consequently, this action is hereby dismissed.
